Event Booking Terms & Conditions

for The Country Park Inn

These terms & conditions are in place to protect all parties through a better understanding of contractual & legal obligations of both the client and venue when confirming a booking. If you have any questions relating to anything in this document, please chat to a member of our events team.

Definitions: 'The Country Park' 'Venue' and 'We' means The Country Park for which a contract is agreed. The 'Client' and 'You' means the organising body / company or organiser responsible for the commissioning of and payment for the event.

Bookings, Reservations & Guest Numbers:

We understand that liaising with various organisations can be difficult when checking dates of availability, therefore, all provisional bookings will be held for 7 days and then automatically released without notification. Once these terms and conditions have been signed, and minimum numbers agreed, this will then constitute a legally binding contract. The Country Park needs to be advised in writing of the estimated number of guests and package required at the time of booking your wedding.

Four weeks before the event final numbers attending on the day must be given. If these numbers are greater than those originally confirmed, this becomes the new chargeable number. If your numbers fall below the relevant chargeable number, we may need to reassess your booking & its overall costs.

Please be aware that children are not included within the price of any package and will be charged additionally. A full breakdown of costs will be provided on request. No part of our package has a monetary value, if you choose to opt out of an offered service, no refund, deduction in price or substitute will be offered.

Payments:

To confirm your booking, a non-refundable/non-transferable deposit of £1000 is due with a copy of these terms and conditions completed by you. Payments must be made using the following time scales:

12 Months prior 25% of the booking value to be received

9 Months prior 50% of the booking value to be received

6 Months prior 75% of the booking value to be received

3 Months prior 100% of the booking value to be received

Any outstanding payments from these dates will incur a late payment fee of 1% of the full amount per day.

All prices are inclusive of VAT at current rate and are subject to the rate in operation at the time of the function. We reserve the right to vary our prices if there is a change in VAT. All payments must be made by BACS transfer or in cash. Unfortunately, we are unable to accept payments by credit / debit card or cheque. Any overpayments made are non-refundable. Once the final balance is paid, the venue will make no monetary refund. The venue will also not make any substitute, once final numbers have been confirmed and the final invoice has been paid, we are unable to refund or substitute any costs paid for any other product.

Cancellation:

Upon acceptance and confirmation of your booking by The Country Park, a legally binding contract exists. If you are forced to cancel your booking for any reason we reserve the right to retain the deposit paid as per written details in the Payment Section and make a cancellation charge as follows; 50% of the booking value in addition to the deposit paid if cancelled between 6 – 9 months of the event date. 75% of the booking value in addition to the deposit paid if cancelled between 3 – 6 months prior to the event date. 100% of the booking value in addition to the deposit paid if cancelled with less than 3 months of the event date. The Country Park reserves the right to cancel an event under the following circumstances: If the booking may, in the opinion of The Country Park, prejudice the reputation of the venue. If the client is in arrears with any payments to The Country Park or fails to abide by the terms of this contract. The Country Park, or any part of it, is closed due to circumstances beyond our control. In this event a refund of any advance deposit will be paid but would have no other liability.

General Regulations & Use of the Venue:

Any & all visits to the venue must be done so via a pre-arranged appointment with your wedding co-ordinator. We are unable to see people without a pre-booked appointment. Guests using the facilities of The Country Park must comply with all regulations concerning licence, fire, health and safety. Hazardous or dangerous items may not be brought into the venue without prior permission. You must seek prior consent of the venue for any entertainment or service contracted for the function, venue management will have the final decision to any entertainment taking place at the venue. You will need consent if you wish to use amplification, lighting or similar electrical equipment in this venue. If you wish to book your own entertainment, or you wish to attach items to walls, floors or ceilings. If you wish to book a professional fireworks display. It is the responsibility of the third party to provide all risk assessments and insurance for all activities conducted on site, all must be provided on request. When using outside suppliers, any equipment must be collected & removed from our venue by 9am the next day. We do not hold any liability for any damage to this equipment made by you or your guests. You will be provided with an allocated time on the day of your event to access the venue for set up. Early access may be granted, however cannot be guaranteed. The Country Park reserves the right to require the disco/band/entertainment to lower the volume, change the music or stop the performance at any time. Should guests act in an improper or disorderly way or refuse to comply with reasonable requests from our staff, The Country Park reserves the right to terminate your event with immediate effect. Should this occur, no monies will be refunded to you. The client must reimburse the costs of repairing any damage to the property, contents or grounds by any guest to the venue.

We do not allow the use of confetti inside the venue however do allow you to use biodegradable confetti in our outside areas. You are not permitted to use alcohol as gifts or favours within your event on our premises.

The Country Park will be liable to you and your guests for injury or loss or damage where and to the extent we have been negligent. You will be held liable for any loss or damage to The Country Park's property and fittings and any items hired by us for your use, or for injury to anyone including The Country Park employees arising as a consequence of this booking. We regret that we cannot be responsible for the security of your property, though we will do our utmost to look after it. The Country Park reserves the right to charge for any additional services during the event if you do not adhere to agreed timings. The Country Park strongly recommends your taking out adequate insurance to cover the cost of cancellation and other liabilities.

The Country Park cannot accept responsibility for anything said to you by a member of staff which deviates from the information given in your chosen package unless you have written confirmation from the General Manager. Children are welcome at weddings however the venue & it's grounds are potentially hazardous, we cannot accept any liability whatsoever in the event of an accident due to children playing. We respectfully ask that guardians keep a watchful eye and ensure that their children are always confined within the area of the wedding & are well supervised. We, the Bride & Groom also agree that any photos taken during the wedding can be used for venue marketing specially.

Catering:

You must provide catering for each & every one of your guests.

Guests must not consume food or drink on the premises not supplied by The Country Park unless you are providing food for a baby or a person with an allergy. If you would like to provide additional menu choices to your guests in addition to what is advertised in our packages, a surcharge will be added. The venue will accommodate any special dietary requirements where possible and have the right to pass onto you the extra charge for items should this arise. The venue should be notified in writing of all dietary requirements no later than one month before the wedding, along with all final menu choices. Any specific requests made on the day of the wedding cannot be catered for. We require a clear table plan from you in advance of your wedding day, which must indicate where all guests with dietary requirements are seated. We monitor the presence of nuts in all our products but cannot guarantee that any items of food are free from traces of nuts.
